27 INTRODUCTION

28 1. Plaintiff herein complains, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rules of Civil Procedure in the Superior Court For The State Of California that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities. This Complaint refers to ADA but Plaintiff is not pleading substantially limited necessary for federal jurisdiction. Any Defendant removing this case to federal court will be in violation of Rule 11.

1 Plaintiff is a Serial Plaintiff and a champion of disability civil rights. A Serial Plaintiff enforces 2 federal and accessibility laws. Plaintiff alleges this civil action and others substantial similar 3 thereto are necessary to compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness 4 of the access statutes indicates these laws have failed to achieve full and equal access simply by the 5 executive branches of the Government funding and promoting voluntary compliance efforts.

6 Further, empirical research shows when individuals with disabilities give actual notice of potential 7 access problems to places of public accommodation without a civil rights action, the public 8 accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Therefore, Plaintiff makes the following 9 allegations in this civil rights action:

- 10 2. The property 231 3RD AVE, CHULA VISTA, CA 91910-2743; Assessor's Parcel Number: 11 568-071-14 that is the subject of this action is located in the County.
- 12 3. Venue is proper in the County because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within 13 SAN DIEGO County and the property that is the subject of this action is situated in the County.

14
15 NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

16 4. Defendants are, and, at all times mentioned herein, were, a business or corporation or 17 franchise organized and existing and/or doing business under the laws of the State of California.
18 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant CHARLES B REIGNER is 19 located at 10354 BONNIE LN, LA MESA, CA 91941-4303. Defendant CHERYL H REIGNER is 20 located at 10354 BONNIE LN, LA MESA, CA 91941-4303. Defendant ANTONIO TAILOR
21 SHOP is located at 231 3rd Ave, Chula Vista, CA 91910. Defendant 9008 GROUP INC DBA
22 ACT 1 PERSONNEL SERVICES is located at 231 3RD AVE STE D, CHULA
23 VISTA, CA 91910-2743 or c/o Registered Agent: CARLTON BRYANT, located at 1999 W 24 190TH ST, TORRANCE, CA 90504-6202 or PO BOX 29048, GLENDALE, CA 91209-9048.

25 5. The words Plaintiffs and Plaintiff as used herein specifically include all birth and other 26 names of named Plaintiff.

27 6. Defendants Does 1 through 10, were at all times relevant herein subsidiaries, employers, 28

1 employees, agents, of CHARLES B REIGNER; CHERYL H REIGNER; ANTONIO TAILOR 2 SHOP; 9008 GROUP INC DBA ACT 1 PERSONNEL SERVICES. Plaintiff is ignorant of the 3 true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore 4 sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will pray leave of the court to amend this 5 complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the Does when ascertained.

6 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants and each of them 7 herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, 8 general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the 9 remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiff is 10 further informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants herein gave consent 11 to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

12
13 CONCISE SET OF FACTS

14 8. Plaintiff's birth name is Loraine Marquez. As a child she was called Noni Gotti. At 18 15 Plaintiff used her birth name in all documents of identity until 2000 when she legally changed her 16 name to Noni Gotti. Plaintiff has physical impairments of cervical back disease, which causes 17 severe pain without medication. Plaintiff said physical impairments limit one or more of the 18 following major life activities including but not limited to: long walking, jumping, leaning, opening 19 doors, lifting, balancing, cooking, cleaning and sexual activity. Without medication Plaintiff 20 cannot perform these activities. Plaintiff learned about her access rights in March 2008. Plaintiff 21 realized she could do something about all the access problems she was having. Now, Plaintiff is a 22 Serial Plaintiff as defined by HOLLYNN D'LIL, Plaintiff-Appellant, v. BEST WESTERN 23 ENCINA LODGE & SUITES; ENCINA-PEPPER TREE LTD.; DAVID Z. WEBBER; 24 JEANETTE WEBBER; CECELIA E. VILLINES, Defendants-Appellees. No. 06-55516, 25 UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT, 2008 U.S. App.
26 LEXIS 17168, November 5, 2007, Argued and Submitted, Pasadena, California, August 12, 27 2008, Filed

1 9. In year 2008, Plaintiff knew that Defendants' public accommodation facilities were not 2 accessible. If Plaintiff patronized Defendants' facilities, Plaintiff would have been unable to use 3 and/or would have had difficulty using the public accommodations' facilities including but not 4 limited to the facilities, as said facilities were not accessible because they failed to comply with 5 ADA Access Guidelines For Buildings and Facilities (hereafter referred to as "ADAAG" and 6 codified in 28 C.F.R. Part 36, App. A) and/or California's Title 24 Building Code Requirements.

7 10. Defendants failed to remove barriers to equal access within their public accommodation 8 facilities. The barriers are related to Plaintiff's impairments. The following examples of known 9 barriers to access are not an exhaustive list of the barriers to access that exist at Defendants' 10 facilities.

11 11. For example, the Antonio Tailor Shop's entrance doorknob is not a lever, the counter 12 exceeds 36 inches, there are loose mats and has no International symbol of accessibility at the 13 entrance. The Act 1 Personnel Services' entrance doorknob is not a lever, there are loose mats and 14 has no International symbol of accessibility at the entrance.

15 12. Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C.S. § 12181 et seq., 16 provides that no individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and 17 equal enjoyment of any place of public accommodation. 42 U.S.C.S. § 12182(a). "Discrimination" 18 is defined as a failure to remove barriers where such removal is readily achievable or, where an 19 entity can demonstrate that the removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, a failure to make 20 accommodations available through alternative methods if such methods are readily achievable. 42 21 U.S.C.S. § 12182(b)(2)(iv)-(v). Title III provides for injunctive relief as the exclusive remedy for 22 private individuals seeking to enforce the law. 42 U.S.C.S. § 12188(a)(2). A disabled individual 23 who is currently deterred from patronizing a public accommodation due to a defendant's failure to 24 comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C.S. § 12181 et seq., has suffered 25 "actual injury." Similarly, a plaintiff who is threatened with harm in the future because of existing 26 or imminently threatened non-compliance with the ADA suffers "imminent injury." With regard to 27 actions brought under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C.S. § 12181 28

1 et seq., the actual injury rule in cases where the public accommodation being sued is far from the 2 plaintiff's home, courts have found actual or imminent injury sufficient to establish standing where 3 a plaintiff demonstrates an intent to return to the geographic area where the accommodation is 4 located and a desire to visit the accommodation if it were made accessible. The United States Court
5 of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has explicitly not required ADA plaintiffs to engage in the "futile 6 gesture" of visiting or returning to an inaccessible place of public accommodation in order to 7 satisfy the standing requirement. With regard to actions brought under Title III of the Americans 8 with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C.S. § 12181 et seq., the attempted use of past litigation to 9 prevent a litigant from pursuing a valid claim in federal court warrants a court's most careful 10 scrutiny. This is particularly true in the ADA context where the law's provision for injunctive relief 11 only removes the incentive for most disabled persons who are injured by inaccessible places of 12 public accommodation to bring suit. As a result, most ADA suits are brought by a small number of 13 private plaintiffs who view themselves as champions of the disabled. For the ADA to yield its 14 promise of equal access for the disabled, it may indeed be necessary and desirable for committed 15 individuals to bring serial litigation advancing the time when public accommodations will be 16 compliant with the ADA. Accordingly, courts must be particularly cautious about affirming 17 credibility determinations that rely on a plaintiff's past ADA litigation. HOLLYNN D'LIL, 18 Plaintiff-Appellant, v. BEST WESTERN ENCINA LODGE & SUITES; ENCINA-PEPPER TREE
19 LTD.; DAVID Z. WEBBER; JEANETTE WEBBER; CECELIA E. VILLINES, Defendants-20 Appellees. No. 06-55516, UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH 21 CIRCUIT, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 17168, November 5, 2007, Argued and Submitted, Pasadena, 22 California, August 12, 2008, Filed 23

24 13. Plaintiff can prove these barriers as Plaintiff conducted a preliminary survey of Defendants' 25 facility. Plaintiff specifically alleges that Defendants knew, to a substantial certainty, that the 26 architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiff will prove that Defendants had 27 actual knowledge that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access and that the 28

1 noncompliance with ADAAG as to accessible entrances was intentional. Second, due to the 2 abundance of ADA information and constant news covers of ADA lawsuits, Defendants had actual 3 knowledge of the ADA and decided deliberately not to remove architectural barriers. Third, 4 Defendants have no plans to remodel. Fourth, Defendants had actual knowledge of ADA given all 5 the ADA public awareness campaigns, the abundance of free ADA information and the media's 6 constant ADA coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants made a conscious decision 7 as to how to proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiff alleges any 8 alternative methods preclude integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a second-9 class entrance. Also, expert testimony will show the facility contained inaccessible features.
10 Plaintiff alleges businesses often state that they have few customers with disabilities. Plaintiff 11 alleges such customers avoid patronizing inaccessible businesses and are deterred from patronizing 12 such businesses.

13 14. Plaintiff intends to return to Defendants' public accommodation facilities in the immediate 14 future. Plaintiff is presently deterred from returning due to their knowledge of the barriers to access 15 that exist at Defendants' facilities. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to 16 remove barriers to their existing facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their 17 barrier removal duties under the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 18 26, 1992. Also, Defendants should have known that individuals with disabilities are not required to 19 give notice to a governmental agency before filing suit alleging Defendants failed to remove 20 architectural barriers.

21 15. Plaintiff believes and herein alleges Defendants' facilities have access violations not directly 22 experienced by Plaintiff which would preclude or limit access by Plaintiff and other persons with 23 disabilities, potentially including but not limited to violations of the ADA, ADA Accessibility 24 Guidelines (Codified in 28 C.F.R. Part 36, App. A) and Title 24 of the California Building Code.
25 Plaintiff alleges Defendants are required to utilize the ADA checklist for Readily Achievable 26 Barrier Removal approved by the United States Department of Justice and created by Adaptive 27 Environments.

28

1 16. Based on these facts, Plaintiff alleges he was discriminated against each time he patronized
2 Defendants' facilities. Plaintiff was extremely upset due to Defendants' conduct.

3 NOTICE

4 17. Plaintiff is not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint.

12 19. Plaintiff aver that the Defendants are liable for the following claims as alleged below:

13 DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS- Claims Under California's 15 Incorporation Of The More Stringent Provisions Of The Americans With Disabilities Act Of

16 1990

17 20. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of 18 disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 19 accommodations of any place of public accommodation as Defendants own, lease (or lease to), or 20 operate a place of public accommodation in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this 21 provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the 22 substantially limiting part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

23 Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff directly, or through 24 contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity of the individual or 25 class to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 26 accommodations of an entity in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this provision is more 27 stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting 28

1 part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Based on the facts
2 stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as it is discriminatory to afford an 3 individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or disabilities of such individual or 4 class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements with the opportunity to 5 participate in or benefit from a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that 6 is not equal to that afforded to other individuals in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this 7 provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the 8 substantially limiting part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
9 Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as it is discriminatory 10 to provide an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or disabilities of such 11 individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements with a good, 12 service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is different or separate from that 13 provided to other individuals as long as this provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 14 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting part of the definition of disability 15 under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants 16 discriminated against Plaintiff as Defendants failed to afford to an individual with a disability in 17 the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of the individual in violation of 42 U.S.C.
18 §12182 as long as this provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim 19 does not include the substantially limiting part of the definition of disability under the Americans 20 with Disabilities Act. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff 21 as Defendants utilized standards or criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of 22 discriminating on the basis of disability; or that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are 23 subject to common administrative control in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this 24 provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the 25 substantially limiting part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
26 Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as it is discriminatory 27
28

1 to exclude or otherwise deny equal goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, 2 accommodations, or other opportunities to an individual or entity because of the known disability 3 of an individual with whom the individual or entity is known to have a relationship or association
4 in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 5 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting part of the definition of 6 disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act. See Niece v. Fitzner 922 F. Supp. 1208
7 (1996). Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as Defendants 8 engaged in the specific prohibitions as stated in 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this provision is more
9 stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting 10 part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Based on the facts 11 stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as Defendant failed to demonstrate that the 12 removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, and made such goods, services, facilities, privileges, 13 advantages, or accommodations available through alternative methods in a segregated manner in 14 violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 as long as this provision is more stringent than Civil Code 51, 52
15 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting part of the definition of disability 16 under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief to remove all 17 barriers to access that are related to his disability even those barriers that are only known to exist 18 but are not directly experienced by plaintiff. Doran v 7-Eleven Inc, 2007 U.S.App.Lexis 26143 (9th 19 Cir 2007). Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff as 20 Defendants altered the use of their establishment in a manner that affected or could have affected 21 the usability of the facility or part thereof and failed to make alterations in such a manner that, to 22 the maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and usable 23 by individuals with disabilities in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12183 as long as this provision is more
24 stringent than Civil Code 51, 52 and 54.3 and this claim does not include the substantially limiting 25 part of the definition of disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS - CLAIMS UNDER 2 CALIFORNIA ACCESSIBILITY LAWS

3 CLAIM I: Denial Of Full And Equal Access

4 21. Based on the facts plead above and elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff was denied full 5 and equal access to Defendants' goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 6 accommodations within a public accommodation owned, leased, and/or operated by Defendants as 7 required by Civil Code Sections 54 and 54.1. Defendants' facility violated California's Title 24 8 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide equal access to Defendants' facilities.

9 22. These violations denied Plaintiff full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff 10 was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because Plaintiff was 11 denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing severe emotional distress.

12 CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

13 23. Based on the facts plead above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants failed and 14 refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and procedures in 15 that they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiff and/or others similarly situated 16 in entering and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1. Thus, Plaintiff 17 NONI GOTTI was subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil Code § 54.1.

18 CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

19 24. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 8 - 15 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because 20 Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code §
21 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to discriminate 22 against Plaintiff and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1.

23 25. Based on the facts plead above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause Of Action 24 above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm unless 25 Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication barriers at 26 Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' discriminatory conduct is 27 capable of repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiff and a substantial 28

1 segment of the disability community. Plaintiff alleges there is a state and national public interest in 2 requiring accessibility in places of public accommodation. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law 3 to redress the discriminatory conduct of Defendants. Plaintiff desires to return to Defendants' 4 places of business in the immediate future. Accordingly, the Plaintiff alleges that a structural or 5 mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin compliance with state civil rights laws enacted for the 6 benefit of individuals with disabilities.

7 26. Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.
8

9 Treble Damages Pursuant To Claims I, II, III Under The California Accessibility Laws

10 27. Defendants, each of them respectively, at times prior to and including the day Plaintiff 11 patronized Defendants' facilities, and continuing to the present time, knew that persons with 12 physical disabilities were denied their rights of equal access to all portions of this public facility.
13 Despite such knowledge, Defendants, and each of them, failed and refused to take steps to comply 14 with the applicable access statutes; and despite knowledge of the resulting problems and denial of 15 civil rights thereby suffered by Plaintiff and other similarly situated persons with disabilities.
16 Defendants, and each of them, have failed and refused to take action to grant full and equal access 17 to persons with physical disabilities in the respects complained of hereinabove. Defendants, and 18 each of them, have carried out a course of conduct of refusing to respond to, or correct complaints 19 about, denial of disabled access and have refused to comply with their legal obligations to make 20 Defendants' public accommodation facilities accessible pursuant to the Americans With Disability 21 Act Access Guidelines (ADAAG) and Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations (also known 22 as the California Building Code). Such actions and continuing course of conduct by Defendants, 23 and each of them, evidence despicable conduct in conscious disregard of the rights and/or safety of 24 Plaintiff and of other similarly situated persons, justifying an award of treble damages pursuant to 25 sections 52(a) and 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code.

26 28. Defendants, and each of their actions have also been oppressive to persons with physical 27 disabilities and of other members of the public, and have evidenced actual or implied malicious 28

1 intent toward those members of the public, such as Plaintiff and other persons with physical 2 disabilities who have been denied the proper access to which they are entitled by law. Further, 3 Defendants, and each of their, refusals on a day-to-day basis to correct these problems evidence 4 despicable conduct in conscious disregard for the rights of Plaintiff and other members of the 5 public with physical disabilities.

6 29. Plaintiff prays for an award of treble damages against Defendants, and each of them, 7 pursuant to California Civil Code sections 52(a) and 54.3(a), in an amount sufficient to make a 8 more profound example of Defendants and encourage owners, lessors/lessees, and operators of 9 other public facilities from willful disregard of the rights of persons with disabilities. Plaintiff does 10 not know the financial worth of Defendants, or the amount of damages sufficient to accomplish the 11 public purposes of section 52(a) of the California Civil Code and section 54.3 of the California 12 Civil Code.

13 30. Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.

14 DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT FOR RELIEF:

- 15 A. For general damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code §§ 52 or 54.3;
- 16 B. For $4,000 in damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code § 52 for each and every offense of Civil 17 Code § 51, Title 24 of the California Building Code, ADA, and ADA Accessibility Guidelines 18 (Codified in 28 C.F.R. Part 36, App. A);
- 19 C. In the alternative to the damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code § 52 in Paragraph B above, for 20 $1,000 in damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code § 54.3 for each and every offense of Civil Code § 21 54.1, Title 24 of the California Building Code, ADA, and ADA Accessibility Guidelines;
- 22 D. For injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a), Civil Code sections 52 and 54.3.
23 Plaintiff requests this Court enjoin Defendants to remove all architectural and communication 24 barriers in, at, or on their facilities including without limitation violations of the ADA, ADA 25 Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 of the California Building Code;
- 26 E. For attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, 42 U.S.C. § 12205, and Cal. Civil Code §§ 27 52, 54.3;
